

National Contact Points: Why you should contact us

Info session on SSH opportunities - 19/01/2016 Brussels

Alain Deleener, Géraud Guilloud, Monique Septon, Man Hei To, Pascale Van Dinter, Tania Van Loon

What is an NCP

We - National Contact Points - are appointed intermediaries between the European Commission and (potential) RDI projects participants

We belong to European networks to help you find suitable partners and relevant contacts (ex Net4Society)

We know the rules of the game

Processes, jargon, legal and financial matters, administration
Timeframe of calls for proposals
Understanding of work programmes
Latest versions of documents
Privileged contact with EC
Trained by the EC

We are experienced

coordinators and/or partners of European research and innovation projects

We know where to find answers to complex questions and difficult situations

« What does the EC exactly mean with that topic description »

« Can I involve sub-contractors in my project »

« What if a project partner goes bankrupt »

« We have an auditor coming over next week » ...

How NCPs can help you

We provide free-of-charge professional guidance

Adapt to your needs (beginner to experienced, punctual to global)
Follow strict guiding principles (confidentiality, no conflict of interest...)
NCPs are on your side to

- Support your research and innovation strategy
- Protect your interests (property rights, budgets...)

Belgium is fun!
